

The public airways belong to the people and should be used for the peoples' interest not for the profit making of a few corporations. No to media consolidation. A free and diversified press is required if this Republic is going to continue to exist.